THE I.O.O.F. ANNIVERSARY

Claresholm Odd Fellows celebrated the 106th anniversary of the order last Sunday evening. Members of Foot Hill Lodge No. 13, together with a few visiting Odd Fellows, marched to the Methodist church, and participated in a special service arranged for the occasion.

The service was conducted by the Rev. Geo. G. Webber, Junior Past Grand of Foot Hill Lodge, and Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge of Alberta.

The choir, under the leadership of J. W. Hallett, rendered choice music. The anthem "The Earth is the Lord's" was given by the choir; Mrs. J. E. Amundsen sang "My Task" as a solo; and Messrs. S. O. Hillerud and R. Jones gave "Drifting" as a duet. Each of these musical numbers was well rendered and added much to the enjoyment and inspiration of the service.

Rev. Mr. Webber chose as his subject, "Is Odd Fellowship Christian?" basing his discourse on the Epistle of James; first chapter and twenty-seventh verse, Matthew 25:31-46, and Luke 10:25-35, were read as the Scripture lessons.

In introducing the theme reference was made to the fact that the Independent Order of Odd Fellows now number 1,913,111 members, with 1,071,960 members in the Rebekah branch of the order.

During the last year over $7,800,000.00 was spent in relief work, including the payment of sick benefits, funeral expenses, assistance to widows and orphans, and for special education of orphans.

In this way the order was seeking to carry out its principles of visiting the sick, aiding the distressed, burying the dead, and educating the orphan. These are pre-eminently Christian tasks, the direct and definite work of Jesus. Where Christianity is unknown these forms of philanthropy are unknown, and Odd Fellowship is unknown. The spirit of Odd Fellowship is shown in the desire of the order to meet every form of need, both with respect to members of the order and their dependents, and also as individuals in relief to those outside the membership of the order.

"Puré religion and undefiled before our God and Father, is this, to visit the fatherless and the widows in their affliction, AND TO KEEP ONSLSE UNSPOTTED before the world."

Truth is a fundamental principle of true Odd Fellowship, quite as much as Friendship and Brotherly Love, and the truth which Odd Fellowship upholds is the truth in every-day life, truth in Christian character. Just as the philanthropic side of Odd Fellowship is a direct outgrowth of Christian teaching, so the good character which is essential to the best in Odd Fellowship, is the character based on the spirit and teaching of Jesus Christ. In fact, the fundamental principle of Odd Fellowship is Christian and scriptural, that only a loyal and devout follower of Jesus Christ can hope to realize the highest and best in Odd Fellowship. An earnest application of the principles of Christian teaching and guide.

The church was crowded for the service, and the close of the service the Odd Fellows marched back to their room, under the direction of W. E. Atkinson, P. G.

To the Interest of the Public

One great reason why the automobile has become so popular and owned by almost everybody, why almost every household has a piano and so many more necessary things, is because small payment may be paid, and the balance paid in small monthly payments.

What about the farm and home? It wants repairing and painting the worst way, but you say you can't afford to have it done because you have not the ready cash. But a small payment will repair and repaint the home and farm buildings, the cream cheque or egg money each month will pay the balance off.

Get your property repaired and repainted and feel prosperous. Save the fuel bill by putting up the windows, nailing the siding to where it was intended to be, and protected by one or two coats of good paint.

Call and see me or Phone 139 and make arrangements about getting your property painted on the easy payment plan.

Making the Town and Rural Home More Attractive With Flowers, Shrubbery and Trees

A lone unattractive house brings no credit to its occupant. If all homes were like those occasionally seen both in town and country places we would be compelled to hang our heads in the presence of visitors from other lands. Why should any house be a bit of ground property a shabby unkempt appearance? Few countries can boast as wide a range of hardy planting material, and where could help in forming a more attractive home than more easily be obtained? The experimental farms and agricultural colleges exist to discover for the citizen reliable information on plants and culture. The more the more ornamental varieties stand ready to time to help those who care to improve their home surroundings.

One has only to attack the problem of becoming his place to find assistance on every hand. The government has the "way open" for proceeding with the undertaking. Whether it be the planting of a hedge, a clump of shrubbery, a hasty border, a few vines, some thought must be given to the problem of the cost of material for making the necessary plans.

Trees have their place in grounds, that are roomy, but other things can not replace what is necessary in the when space. On the other hand, where tree planting has been neglected and there is space for both trees and smaller ornamentals, some carefully selected varieties should be chosen. The more the better, the greater the good and the country's population from the farm to the cities.

Jewish Farmers In States

Race Is Not Connected Soily With Mercantile Pursuits

Those persons who habitually think of the Jew as connected solely with mercantile and industrial pursuits have widened their eyes when looking at the Straits, the end of April, 1925, without more capital than $1,000, now 20,000, and still hardly in a position with my family, my destined goal which was a home, seemed somewhat distant. I simply went straight to work and with my wife, who is a good woman, to the right of our own, what seemed to me, the right, shall never forget the feeling in walking over it, that with the addition of a little work, that I knew, I was going to have, would be my very own. With a thought of the future, a few months sooner? I had six months before I need go on it, so went back to work and by the time my family arrived the next spring our little shanty was built and we were in. I hope to establish this with the forthcoming crop of the farm if the farm it is known on my little $10 homestead, will equal $10,000 when I buy it, and all my creditors."

Mr. Meacham ends his letter thus: "In conclusion, to all those many members of our community who are here to come and die, we are very hearty welcome. We have the stage set and machinery going for twice the people we have. Naturally, conditions in our country being what they are, you have still the pioneering spirit, there will still be hindrances, for as long as you care to look forward. #### How a Homesteader in Alberta Succeeded Without Capital

Among many letters to the Edmonton Journal by settlers from the British Isles who have made a success of their homesteads, the following from W. T. Meacham of Chalder, Alberta, who left England 20 years ago, is of interest:

He says, in part:

"Having decided to come over, I came on it, but for a new land. The province of Alberta had just been created. Everything brand new. Landing at Strathcona, the end of April, 1925, without more capital than $1,000, now 20,000, and still hardly in a position with my family, my destined goal which was a home, seemed somewhat distant. ## Silver Cups For School Planting

Competition to Encourage Permanent School Garden of Growth

The ornamental planting of the grounds of the country schools is to be given encouragement in a competition arranged for by the Canadian Department of Education. A cash prize of $250 is to be awarded in each province to the rural school that accomplishes the greatest degree of beautification of its grounds during the year. To enter the competition a photograph of the lawns and grounds and a letter of entry has to be submitted to the chairman of the provincial committee or to Mr. L. E. Munro, director of the Canadian Department of Education.

The provincial chairmen are as follows: British Columbia, Trot, E. F. Duck; University of British Columbia, Vancouver; Alberta, Prof. Geo. Harcourt; University of Manitoba, Prof. J. S. MacLennan; De. F. C. Duthie, University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon; Manitoba, Prof. F. W. Bricker, University of Manitoba, Winnipeg; Ontario, Prof. H. McLean, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph; Nova Scotia, W. G. Turner, Provincial Horticulturist, Princeton; Newfoundland, Prof. Shaw, College of Agriculture, Truro; Prince Edward Island, J. A. MacLennan, Horticultural Experiment Farm, Charlottetown.

One has only to observe the bare appearance of many of the school grounds to realize the importance of this competition, which is intended to encourage a certain beautification that will bear over to from year to year. Schools will be encouraged to use such hardy and attractive plants as will surely develop durability, that will not suffer from lack of attention during the vacation period. The competing schools will first be judged by districts and the final award in each province will be made by the provincial committee of the council.

Siamese King Has Wonderful Motor Car

Contains Several Rooms Finished in Polished Mahogany

A motor car with a trailer, the whole valued at $25,000, is to be presented to the King of Siam by the members of the Siamese royal household, according to word received in London.

There are several unusual features connected with the gift. The driver is to be seated in a compartment, and the car is to be used for his own use. There is also a dining room and sitting room, sumptuously furnished, and a bathroom.

The trailer is to be a two-roomed hall and sitting room with two beds folding up against the wall when not in use. Both coaches are furnished throughout in polished mahogany. The weight of the car is nine tons, and the trailer over tons, and the combination can exceed a speed of 14 miles an hour.

Bulbs and Fluffy Rooted Flowering Plants for the Prairie

According to the experience and experiments on the prairie experimental farms and stations, many varieties of flowering plants raised from roots, tubers and seeds, will grow in the prairie, and it is to be remarked that the above are more like a experimental store than a church. The opinion that some of the most beautiful things in the abbey are to be seen because of the large crowds that may be gathered and shared by many lovers of the historic building, including Canon Weston.

The daffodils were raised from seed started in hot beds in the early spring and transplanted to the gardens after the time of spring frosts. Some blood was obtained late in the season when the soil was taken before the time of several fall frosts. They were stored in shallow boxes in a frost-proof cellar. The roses handled this way have not faded in the heat of summer, but during the winter months. In April or May they were started in preparation for their season's work. Mr. Thaline found satisfaction with several varieties of roses, and some of the best are obtainable from the nurseries.

Denmark Escaped Winter Weather

No Snow and Frost Has Been Experienced

This is the mildest winter Denmark has known in three centuries. Not once has the temperature fallen below the freezing point in the daytime, and the snow that has fallen since the middle of November has been continually melting. The temperature of the month of February is the coldest in Denmark; this year it has had the character of early spring. The mild winter has been caused by the extreme cold in the coal merchants. Particularly the latter are complaining bitterly. They are losing a great deal of money they say.

Thus, like Holtsholm, Reval and many other towns, the coal merchants have a continually melting snow at this time of the year, having had to the present experienced nothing more wintry than a few nights of frost.

Sheep For Every Farm

Good Farm Practice Demands Attention to Sheep Industry

Resolutions advocating that the association of the Canadian Woolen and Knit Goods Manufacturers' Association at Toronto

W. A. Dryden, a director of the Canadian Co-operative Wool Growers' Association, speaking at a luncheon, said every type of sheep, including Merino, could be successfully raised in the abbey.

"Sheep should be kept in every farm in Canada as part of good farm practice," he said. "They fit into mixed farming as do other farm animals."

He said that, except for certain areas, the Canadian sheep should be kept for two purposes, wool and mutton, and that Eastern Canada was a small flock country.

The reason why there was not a flock of sheep on each Canadian farm was that the farmers did not know about, or learn enough about, keeping them.

Birds Coming North Again

Thousands Arrive Daily at Miner Sanctuary in Kingville

Population increases for this town and vicinity are figured in thousands every spring-like day.

With the summer population, however, and includes the miners, there are 16,000 migratory geese on the Jack Miner sanctuary, save, that 1,000 swans Lake Erie in front of the town, 5,000 Canada geese and red bellied ducks.

Most of these birds, said the bird keeper, tag indicating that they feasted here on the way north or south in previous years. These birds are all protected by the "Migratory Bird Treaty" and by Canadian Migratory Bird Protection Act.

Birds are here to stay, said the chief of police, who asserted that the law is not violated, by the shooting or capturing of the migrants.

Schoolmates Keep Pledge

Have Written or Sent Each Other Every Year Since 1865

"So long as we each live, on the first day of March each year, we shall be together." And if it is impossible to do so, then, "If we are separated, let us meet again." This is the pledge that 160,000 migratory geese on the Jack Miner sanctuary, save, that 1,000 swans Lake Erie in front of the town, 5,000 Canada geese and red bellied ducks.

Consumption of Eggs in Canada Is Rapidly Increasing

The odd million Canadian hens produce millions of two billion million dozen of eggs in a year will have to increase and work harder in future than they have in the past to meet the increasing demand for eggs.

The consumption of eggs in Canada has rapidly increased in recent years, due to the adoption of the grading system. Twenty-five years ago Canada's consumption of eggs per capita was 100 million eggs per year.

Four years ago it had risen to twenty-six million eggs per head.

Today the consumption is now 100 million eggs per head.
